About Thunder Bay Business:

Thunder Bay Business was first published in December 1984 and has continued to this day each month for almost 39 years. That's over 450 issues delivered each month using the Canada Post system to approximately 4,000 Thunder Bay and northwestern Ontario companies and offices of all kind.

THUNDER BAY BUSINESS

The goal from the beginning has always been to provide interesting, positive information on the business happenings in this beautiful part of Canada. The founder, Scott Sumner, is a lifetime resident of northwestern Ontario and has a great interest in the region.

Thunder Bay Business is one of the few business publications remaining in print within Canada! It covers many topics of business from new and existing companies, both large and small, to government initiatives affecting us and interesting educational ideas made to help you succeed.

Thunder Bay Business is also available in electronic format as a PDF version on the worldwide PressReader platform as well as the ISSUU platform, and is well positioned in Google searches on many business topics.

Thunder Bay Business has a tremendous amount of current and past content on many topics on its website:
